

TABLE OF CONTENTS

About the Author	VII
Shaykh al-Būṭī's Handwritten Introduction	VIII
Introduction to the English Translation	IX
Shaykh al-Būṭī's Fatwa on Following a School of Law	11
Introduction to the First Edition	12
Introduction to the New Edition	19
Summary of what was discussed in al-Khajnadī's Booklet	21
Undisputed Matters	29
The New Claim Made in al-Khanjadī's Booklet
Its arguments and rebuttal	35
1. 'Islam is no more than a handful of rules'	35
2. 'Imams are not infallible'	40
3. 'Schools are not asked about in the grave'	43
4. Shāh Walīyullāh al-Dihlawī	45
5. Ibn 'Abd al-Salām, Ibn al-Qayyim, and Ibn al-Humām	47
6. Ibn Khaldūn	59
7. 'Schools were not followed by the predecessors'	62
Necessity of Taqīd
The validity and evidence for adhering to a specific school of law	65
1. Taqīd is sanctioned by consensus	66
2. Adhering to a specific school of law	73
3. Following an Imam	79
4. Desisting from following an Imam	82
5. Roaming freely in al-lā Madhhabiyya	85
Summary of a Debate between Myself and an Opponent of the Schools	93
Conclusion	105
Appendix to the Second Edition	107
My Father's Statement	120
Appendix Regarding the Book Al-Madhhabiyya al-Muta'asiba	121
Bibliography	153